A 3D rendered scene of a dining table. In the foreground, a white plate holds a large, cooked piece of meat, possibly a brisket, garnished with yellow lemon wedges and a sprig of pink flowers. A hand is holding a long, reddish-brown sausage over the plate. In the background, another white plate contains a smaller piece of meat, a tomato slice, and potato wedges. Two green cans with red and white labels are on the table. A person's arm and torso are visible on the right side of the frame.
